The format of the tournament was a Modified Swiss.

Players could play as many games as they wanted, whenever they wanted, and against whomever they wanted. Blake Fields played 15 games, Jim Butts and Leo Nikora played 13, and Welles Farago played 12.

Partnerships always contained one Veteran and one All Star. Each Veteran tried to play at least once with each All Star, and vice versa. The Jim Butts and Welles Farago partnered with every All Star, and Leo Nikora partnered with all but one. Blake Fields partnered with all but two Veterans, and Vicki Till partnered with all but three.

Ken Slaughter drove to the tournament in Buttercup.
